A girl found dead in an empty lot, beaten with an eye gouged out... Lieutenant Mendoza feels like there must be a connection between this victim and another young woman found dead half-way across town. But just what is the link between them? In this early police procedural and first outing in the long-running Lt. Mendoza series, we find a colorful neighborhood of lived-in characters, shadowy secrets and a gritty realism that makes the book feel contemporary and fresh. (Summary by Ben Tucker)
